About University :

North Maharashtra University (NMU) was founded on 15th August 1990, as the result of the policy of decentralization and reorganization of university education in the state of Maharashtra. NMU is committed to the mission of educational development in the Khandesh region of the state. The jurisdiction of the university covers three districts: Jalgaon, Dhule and Nandurbar.

Recently, the university has been ranked amongst the top 50 universities in India. The survey was conducted by the renowned periodical 'India Today' in 2013. In this survey, North Maharashtra University ranked at number 40 amongst 620 universities in India. The NMU campus is spread over 650 acres of land on a hilly terrain with a beautiful landscape and spacious academic, administrative and residential buildings that include 13 Schools which comprise of various educational departments.

Under the dynamic leadership of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. S. U. Meshram, the University has taken up projects in various fields including the innovative project 'Lab to Land' which has scientific and social relevance. In the near future NMU is also going to develop Bio-Diversity Park and Tribal Academy.

The School of Thoughts :

India is the land of great personalities, thinkers, philosophers and revolutionaries. The study, research of these intellectuals and of their ideological thinking is conducive to public interest and well being of the present and future generations. Keeping this in mind, Hon'ble Prof. S.U. Meshram, the Vice Chancellor of this university has taken a bold initiative to establish a special School of Thoughts from the year 2012-13. School of Thoughts has adopted an enduring process to impart the vision and mission of the great revolutionary philosophers of India such as Lord Buddha, Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj, Mahatma Jyotiba Phule, Swami Vivekananda, Mahatma Gandhi and Sane Guruji to awaken and enlighten students and the youth, particularly from the oppressed sections of our society within the jurisdiction of the NMU.

The School of Thoughts comprises the following studies and research centers: Buddhist Studies and Research Centre, Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Studies and Research Centre, Mahatma Phule Studies and Research Centre, Swami Vivekananda Studies & Research Centre, Mahatma Gandhi Studies & Research Centre & Sane Guruji Sanskar Kendra.

The Aims and Objectives of the seminar are in line with the aims and objectives of the School of thoughts itself:

1. Promoting awareness regarding the life and message of these six great thinkers.
2. To bring about attitudinal changes through discussions and deliberations on the revolutionary dimension of these thinkers.
3. To create a platform for young scholars to express their views about these thinkers.
4. To trace the relevance of the thought of these thinkers for the present day social reality.

School of Thoughts is Conducting this Seminar to Celebrate the Silver Jubilee Year of North Maharashtra University.
