Gandhi Research Foundation

Gandhi Research Foundation (GRF) has been established with the objective of rejuvenating the Gandhian values of truth, nonviolence, liberty, justice, fraternity and equality. GRF provides a unique learning opportunity by offering training in Gandhian leadership through learning, fieldwork and rural internship.

Community dialogue

“Education should be so revolutionized as to answer the wants of the poorest villager, instead of answering those of an imperial exploiter.”

–Mahatma Gandhi

Chairman's message

“Disparities and conflicts around us seem to be growing even as we see economic growth. Bridging the urban-rural divide and other disparities by leveraging the opportunities of the knowledge era and the eternal Gandhian values can minimise them. They would also lead to a more sustainable and conflict free world.”

The one year post graduate diploma course in ‘Sustainable Rural Reconstruction: Gandhian perspective’ at Gandhi Research Foundation aims to nurture youth to engage themselves into this noble task.

– Anil Kakodkar

Chairman, Gandhi Research Foundation

Faculty speak

“Through this diploma program, we are trying to orient the youth desirous of building a nonviolent society in India with a rural basis.”

– Prof. Sudarshan Iyengar

Director, Gandhi Research Foundation

“If you are a socially aware and committed young person, this is the course for you: it will provide you with foundational knowledge and the wherewithal to make a real difference in bringing about sustainable rural reconstruction.”

– Prof. Gita Dharampal

Research Dean, Gandhi Research Foundation
